

La Peña Presents Toma Mi Corazón XX

 Sat Feb 11 2012 at 08:00 am

Toma Mi Corazon ("Take My Heart") is the annual silent auction fundraiser for La Peña.

Wooden hearts are decorated by artists, celebrities, school children and community leaders in many different fashions, and are then auctioned off just in time for Valentine's Day.

Former heart-artists include: Sandra Cisneros, Bianca Jagger, Los Lobos, Isabel Allende, Governor George W. Bush and former Governor Ann Richards, plus many, many more.

La Peña is committed to providing the community with programs that both nurture and develop our youth, as well as providing a space for new and emerging artists to exhibit their work.

Proceeds from the sale of the wooden heart creations support La Peña's multidisciplinary arts programming in the community.

Thank you for both your support and interest in the arts.
